

EPRINC Embassy Series
Infrastructure Challenges and the North American Petroleum Renaissance

Residence of His Excellency Wegger Chr. Strommen
The Ambassador of Norway to the United States

May 22, 2013
5pm-7:30pm

3401 Massachusetts Ave NW
Washington, DC 20016

4:50pm-5pm – Check-in and Champagne

Please arrive at 3401 Massachusetts Ave to be checked off the attendee list and receive a name tag

5pm – Introductory Remarks

Lucian Pugliaresi (Moderator)

President, Energy Policy Research Foundation, Inc. (EPRINC)

5:05pm-6:30pm – Presentations and Discussion

How the Game has Changed: Infrastructure and the North American Petroleum Renaissance

Trisha Curtis, Senior Research Analyst, EPRINC

The North American Crude Boom: How Game Changing Quality will Impact Refiners

John Auers, Senior Vice President, Turner Mason and Company

Regulatory Hurdles

Tad True, Vice President, Belle Fourche and Bridger Pipelines, True Companies

6:30pm-7:30pm -- Buffet Style Dinner and Roundtable Discussion

Dinner keynote remarks by A. Lance Langford (Vice President Bakken for Development and Production North America) and Torstein Hole (Senior Vice President Development and Production North America) from Statoil

EPRINC gratefully acknowledges the generous support of Statoil in underwriting this evening's event and the EPRINC Embassy Series.